Seniors get connected in Batawa

After a few years, Batawa was excited to host its Seniors Expo this past Friday, November 4th. Almost 300 guests came to the Batawa Community Centre and enjoyed visiting the various exhibits, listening to the presentations and enjoy a free lunch!

There was over 30 exhibitors that was made up by a variety of not-for-profits, local businesses and government agencies. Exhibitors provided valuable resources and information to help keep seniors active, healthy and to have fun. Each exhibitor also gave away a door prize!

The Hastings and Prince Edward Public Health were onsite to provide a flu clinic for guests who were interested.

Ladies of Sacred Heart open hall for Remembrance Day

Looking for a place in the community to honour Remembrance Day? The Ladies of Sacred Heart will have the Ottawa Remembrance Service on TV at 10AM, with coffee available. A warm place to gather with neighbours.

Batawa Lions pack a van of donations for local food bank

It was a successful Fall food drive for the Batawa Lions, as they collected donations for the Frankford Food Pantry. The group raised $935 and 25 bags of food!
